LOVECRAFT WAS A SCI-FI HORROR FICTION WRITER

Meet Carl Johnson, Lecture and Discussion

Who better to speak about Lovecraft's horror tales than Carl Johnson, one of the first investigators of the Perron family in Harrisville, RI in 1973 - a story that became the movie "The Conjuring." While researching a 50th anniversary of Lovecraft's passing, Carl discovered in 1987 that he is cousin to Lovecraft. Carl started a Commemoration that year that began at Lovecraft's grave in Swan Point and continues 30 years later every year at the Ladd Observatory.

Even Stephen King could be frightened by Lovecraft!
